determine which matters are appropriate to bring to the court's attention and in what form. Plaintiff does not have the right to require counsel to raise frivolous arguments or to follow every directive he makes. He should be prepared to accept the strategic decisions made by his lawyer even if he disagrees with some of them. The court will schedule a status conference to reset the schedule in this lawsuit.

Finally, I note that the court has recently revised its procedure for admitting attorneys pro hac vice, and now requires an attorney seeking admission to pay $50. In light of Mr. Galloway's agreement to take on this case with no guarantee of compensation for his services, the $50 admission fee will be waived.
